Last Saturday evening at their home, 1113 Douglas avenue, while Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Reuther were quietly observing their fifth wedding anniversary, a small party of friends surprised them with an unexpected call. Among the callers were several who had been guests at the wedding five years before and in remembrance of the happy event they brought wooden presents that were both useful and ornamental. After extending congratulations, toasts were drunk and the balance of the evening spent in playing Bridge.

The Commercial club's social affairs are doing much to increase the popularity of this organization, which is a distinct credit to this city. Alternating every two weeks, a dance and card party are given at the elegant club rooms, and these attract society in all its splendor. On Thursday night an especially delightful hop was the diversion, there being in attendance about fifteen couples. All enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent, it being the wee sma' hours of the morning when the last couple wended its way homeward. Just previous to the breaking up of the merry party, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Clark were host and hostess to a few of their friends at an impromptu luncheon, served in the banquet room. The next party of the club will be an evening at bridge on July 8.

NEW MEXICO NEWS

Mounted Police Officer W. E. Dudley of Alamogordo, last Sunday closed three saloons at Corona, Lincoln county, which were running full blast.

Prof. J. Manly Morgan has been elected and has accepted the presidency of the Baptist college at Alamogordo. He comes from Abilene, Texas.

G. E. Warren has been appointed by Coal Oil Inspector S. B. Grimshaw to be a deputy inspector at Alamogordo and Carrizozo, and Robert S. Coulter to be a deputy at Tucuman, to assist Deputy Inspector George Senna, whose headquarters are at Santa Rosa.

While hunting near Pajarito, not far from Albuquerque, a wild cat jumped from the brush on Walter Hubbell, the 15-year old son of Felipe Hubbell. The boy beat off the cat with his gun and then fired two shots into the feline, killing her. The hide measured four feet the longest way.

Governor Curry has appointed R. J. Snowden, W. C. Kennedy, A. E. Bloxson and Ben Williams special mounted police. They are employed as special officers by the Santa Fe system and will receive no pay from the territory. William Mulligan was also appointed a special mounted policeman at the lumber camp of Hodges in Taos county.

Messrs. Taylor and Thompson have four acres of fine growing potatoes on the Covey ranch near the head of the north fork of the Sugarito in Colfax county. These potatoes were planted on the sod and their only cultivation will be two plowings: viz: plowing the land and plowing up the potatoes. The yield will be about 125 bushels per acre at a minimum selling price this fall of $1.25 per hundred pounds.

Warren Mutterback of Wooster, O., committed suicide at the home of H. O. Cornell, 12 miles west of Springer, Colfax county, on Wednesday night by drinking tincture of zinc. He came to the territory last January suffering from asthma and catarrh and left about two months ago, and returned Tuesday from Ohio, where his mother lives. He was 21 years of age. Despondency over ill health is said to have been the cause.

The United States land office at Las Cruces had full houses Thursday occasioned by the removal of restrictions from a large area of land lying adjacent to Cutter, in Sierra county. This land was withdrawn by the government at the time the Elephant Butte dam project was inaugurated, but was thrown open to entry Thursday and quite a delegation came in on the morning train and made a rush to the land office. Seventeen entries were made, aggregating 2,500 acres.

Grand Master John W. Fox presided at the cornerstone laying of the new $50,000 Masonic temple at Roswell, Thursday. The ceremonies were attended by a large number of Masons and the public. Members of the order marched from the old temple to the site of the new one and the procession was imposing, with the Masons in full regalia. Following the ceremony of laying the cornerstone, Robert Kellahan, grand orator, delivered an eloquent address. The Masons and their families then went to the C. C. Slaughter ranch, where they enjoyed a basket lunch.

SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL BROUGHT TO A CLOSE

The evangelistic meetings which have been in progress in the armory during the last two weeks, closed last night with a great crowd in attendance.

Mr. Violett's subject was "The Judgment Day." The sermon was a warning to the unpenitent not to put off accepting the only offer of salvation God has ever made to man. After the sermon one more came to take his stand with the church.

For the length of duration this meeting was one of the greatest ever held in the city. As to its immediate results, forty-one have united with the church and three are yet to be baptized, making forty-four in twelve days. Of these twenty-eight were adults.

Next Sunday will close Mr. Dutt's first year with the Christian church in Las Vegas. There were forty-five members identified with the organization when he began. To that number have been added during the year, eighty more, or the membership has been nearly doubled.

Evangelist Violett made many friends during his short stay in Las Vegas. His treatment of everybody was gentlemanly and courteous. The only thing he hates is sin and his arduousness of it will not soon be forgotten. He endeared himself to the hearts of the church members and its minister. Without doubt he is one of the most remarkable men in evangelistic work today. Not once did he stoop to sensationalism or claptrap methods to scare men and women into the kingdom, but depended upon the reasonableness of the plea he represented. His sermons were clear-cut and strong. He has unshaken confidence in the Bible as the word of God and preaches the truth without fear or favor. His knowledge of the text of the Bible is little short of marvelous. Not once during his appearance in the city did he take a Bible into the pulpit, but read chapter after chapter from memory.

Mr. Violett left on No. 3 this morning for Santa Barbara, Calif., where he begins another series of evangelistic meetings.

The Sunday services of the Christian church will be held in the armory until further notice. In the morning at 9:45 the Bible school will be held. Communion service at 11 a. m., and immediately after that Rev. Dutt will preach. Also at 8 p. m. Rev. Dutt will preach.
